Andrew came back in April by arrangement to do our large bedroom. Quite simply he is the best tradesman we have ever met, an exemplary workman and a pleasure to have in the house. The bedroom looks lovely and we are looking forward to having him back to do the two remaining rooms. Andrew has also been very helpful and flexible in doing our home room by room as we are short of space. Again would thoroughly recommend.

Excellent work carried out by Andrew to a good standard whilst keeping my home clean and tidy. He rendered my outside walls and painted the exterior of the house. He decorated the interior, papering, painting and the gloss work. He also grouted my bathroom tiles and silicones around the bath. All this work has been carried out to a great standard and so pleased with the finished result and would highly recommend. He is polite, friendly, trustworthy and very punctual.

I would highly recommend Andrew. He was extremely professional, working efficiently and in a very tidy manner. He was willing to discuss our requirements and offered advice on suitable options and the most cost effective solutions. Great results, will definitely be asking him to work on my next project!

Andy is a real find! He is very professional and painstaking and has made such a lovely job of our hall and kitchen which were completed within a week. Andy is a perfectionist and if anything isn't quite to his satisfaction he will go over it again. He kept us informed of what he was doing throughout and charged a very reasonable price. Andy is punctual to the minute and a neat tidy and considerate worker. We have asked him to do the rest of our home and can't recommend him highly enough. A refreshing change to many of the 'cowboys' we have employed in the past!

Painted stone around doors and windows and top edge of roof. Also painted the drain pipe. Job done to a very high standard and at a reasonable price. Will definitely be using him again.

We first arranged for Andrew to come to decorate two rooms in our house and we were really happy with the quality of his work. We have since had him back to decorate another three rooms. I would highly recommend Andrew's work.
